HISTORIC MEMORIAL
60 ANDRÁSSY AVENUE

A MEMORIAL OF POLITICAL TERROR,
WHERE PEOPLE WERE DETAINED,
TORTURED AND MURDERED DURING
THE ARROW CROSS AND COMMUNIST
DICTATORSHIPS. FROM THE LATE 1930S
THE BUILDING WAS USED AS A MEETING
PLACE BY THE ARROW CROSS AND
LATER AS THEIR PARTY HEADQUARTERS,
DUBBED THE HOUSE OF LOYALTY.
IT WAS TAKEN OVER BY THE COMMUNIST
SECRET POLICE IN 1945 AND LATER
SERVED AS HEADQUARTERS FOR HUN-
GARY'S SECRET SERVICE ORGANISATION
THE STATE PROTECTION AUTHORITY.

Terror Háza (House of Horrors) was the HQ of Socialists (Arrow Cross), Nazis and finally the secret police for torture and execution.

Rather grim in the basement with the original cells, torture room and gallows. A very oppressive and real atmosphere pervaded....

The State Security Authority (ÁVH) moved out in 1956 but the names of those who disappeared are remembered outside on plaques
